Editorial Amalivaca presented 45 books at Filven 2022

The People's Power Minister for Ecosocialism, Josué Lorca, at the headquarters of the XVIII edition of the International Book Fair in Venezuela (Filven 2022), pointed out that he will promote, from the Amalivaca publishing house, the production of downloadable digital files from the WEB and transferable between devices.

Lorca explained that this initiative is due to the global and national trend in the use of new technologies. He also highlighted that a total of 45 literary works were produced from the Ecosocialist portfolio.

Lorca thanked the Ministry of Culture for the support provided for the printing of the texts that were presented at the Fair, and made special emphasis on the number of children's texts that Minec, through Editorial Amalivaca, made available to the Venezuelans this year.

"Venezuelan water resources"

Authored by the Minister of Popular Power for Ecosocialism, Josué Lorca, and the General Director of Forest Heritage, Zoraima Echenique, the book "Hydric Resources of Venezuela" was presented.

In this regard, the co-author Zoraima Echenique indicated that the text is part of the 45 publications that Editorial Amalivaca del Minec brought to the Fair, and stated that the writing has a special dedication.

"We dedicate this text to all the communities, to the communes, communal councils, schools and high schools. It is a consultation document to learn about our water resources," he said.

He indicated that with "Venezuela's Water Resources" it will be possible to know how to care for and protect water sources, and thereby combat the climate crisis.

National Revolving Fund

30 researchers financed for projects against the climate crisis

This is the first advanced funding for research in 10 states of the country

The People's Power Minister for Ecosocialism, Josué Lorca, gave 30 researchers financing for a total amount of 9,000 petros, to develop projects on climate change.

The holder for Ecosocialism explained that the amounts granted correspond to a first advance of investigations that are carried out mainly in 10 states of the country, he also pointed out that said action seeks to face the climate crisis.

"We comply with one of the instructions of President Nicolás Maduro Moros, in terms of combating and confronting the climate crisis that threatens humanity and planet Earth", he said.

The resources come from the National Revolving Fund to finance projects against the climate crisis, approved by the National President in May, during the closing ceremony of the First National Congress of Researchers on Climate Change, which was held in Caracas.

Executive Secretary of Alba-TCP gives master class on Environmental Diplomacy

The Executive Secretary of the Bolivarian Alliance for the Peoples of Our America-Peoples' Trade Treaty (ALBA-TCP), Sacha Llorenti, gave a master class on environmental diplomacy.

The exhibition was held in the Waraira Repano room of the Fruto Vivas Popular University of the Environment (Upafv), Llorenti indicated that his presence is a good opportunity to share with students and teachers on issues of global importance, "not only the climate crisis but also of the crisis of multilateralism".

"We try to draw some ways out of this terrible crisis that involves all of us, but clearly identifying who is responsible", he said.

He pointed out that "one cannot talk about the climate crisis without mentioning the effects of capitalism as the main factor in this serious situation."

"The crisis has to be resolved through the principle of common but differentiated responsibilities among all States. It is essential to know the social and economic context of each country", he assured.

Civil Ranger Corps has a new National Chief

Protecting nature is protecting the Homeland

With the presence of the Minister of Popular Power for Ecosocialism, Josué Lorca, the transmission of command of the Civil Park Ranger Corps of the National Institute of Parks (Inparques) took place, in an act that took place at the main headquarters of the guardians of nature in front of the Francisco de Miranda Recreational Park in Greater Caracas.

In the activity, the outgoing National Head of the group, Carlos Abreu, handed over the banner and functions of the organization to the incoming manager, Pablo Lira, who explained that "we have many goals to achieve, fundamental actions related to the professional growth of each one of the members of the body", he said.

He argued that there is a great challenge regarding the work on climate change, a current point regarding the recent, 27th Conference of the Parties of the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (COP27).

"We have the capacity and we are going to contribute, through the Civil Park Ranger Corps, many functions in the context of climate change, the preservation of life on the planet and the salvation of the human species", he said.

He pointed out that the organization is honored to "be proud, happy and pleased with the great participation and we are going to demonstrate it daily".

For his part, the outgoing head of the Corps, Carlos Abreu, stated that he handed over command "exercised for a long time with the responsibility of carrying out great tasks".

"We left a consolidated Ranger Corps, with legal instruments, an operational capacity to cover the actions and functions carried out by park rangers," he said.

He said he was proud and gave it to Lira, who "has been a fighter and has accompanied us on this walk for the consolidation of the Civil Park Ranger Corps".

"I thank the entire contingent of park rangers, the team that worked alongside me for several years, Inparques and the Ministry for Ecosocialism. Our motto says: protecting nature is protecting the Homeland", he asserted.

UBV holds the IV Environmental Studies Convention 2022

They call for progress in the construction of early warning systems had not happened since 2009 ''.

From the Bolivarian University of Venezuela (UBV), the IV UBV 2022 Environmental Studies Convention was held, in which the production of ecological sovereignty in times of climate crisis was highlighted.

The People's Power Minister for Ecosocialism, Josué Lorca, gave the opening remarks at the convention's installation act, he was accompanied by the deputy to the National Assembly (AN) and president of the permanent commission on Ecosocialism, Ricardo Molina, and the rector of the UBV, Sandra Oblitas Lorca stated that in "the construction of a new development model, in which nature is taken into account as the central axis in order to guarantee our survival as a species, it is essential that all sectors of society participate", for which reason applauded the initiative of said house of higher studies.

He argued that the issue of the environment, Ecosocialism, climate change or climate crisis is something that must be handled by all Venezuelans.

He added that at COP27 a victory was achieved "that has been building and is the empowerment of Venezuela on the issue of climate change in all international settings, which is crowned with the presence of the Venezuelan Head of State, which

"That the President of the Republic has gone to a climate change summit is a victory for all of us, who are in the battle, because we have put the aspect of the climate crisis and the environmental problem on the political stage", he said.

He added that "we cannot continue applying the same methods of urban development or settlement that have been used historically".

"The examples of Las Tejerías, the one in Tucaní two days ago, Valle Verde in Anzoátegui, Los Castaños and El Limón with various events indicate that we have to adapt and this leads us to do an exercise in thinking about these adverse weather situations, wrong settlements and lack of planning", he said.

He asserted that "community risk mapping work was carried out with Professor Lucía Barboza, which has been passed throughout the country and many communities, together with the Somos Venezuela Movement, and people are making their community risk maps and where to We have to move forward to build early warning systems".
