More than 120 officers are fighting the fire in the mountains and two helicopters are available

The Minister of People's Power for Ecosocialism, Josué Lorca, made an overflight over the area affected by a forest fire in the Henri Pittier National Park, in the state of Aragua.

In the Command Post, installed for the contingency, the head of Ecosocialism indicated that the Unified Command against Forest Fires is deployed on the line of the Maracay-Ocumare de la Costa highway.

"For three days we have been deployed on the Ocumare de la Costa highway line, in areas of the Henri Pittier, fighting a fire that has had two restart points, due to strong winds and atmospheric conditions," he said.

"We currently have more than 120 people fighting and two helicopters doing what we call 'Operation Drizzle', to refresh the areas."

He added that certain roadblocks are being applied in specific points that are in fire danger zones, but with total normality the seasonal visitors are passing through. The roadblocks are programmed for 20 to 30 minutes and the seasonal workers are escorted in case of any danger," he said.

He indicated that the fighters receive the support of the National Risk System in charge of the Sectorial Vice-President for Citizen Security and Peace, and Minister for Internal Relations, Justice and Peace, A/J Remigio Ceballos Ichaso and the Vice-Minister for Risk Management and Civil Protection, M/G Carlos Pérez Ampueda.

He pointed out that those attending the fire "have a team for manual combat and at this moment there is a relief, thanks to the mayors of El Limón and Ocumare de la Costa".

He explained that this season has been quite hard "due to the atmospheric conditions, the climate change, the The Child year we are going through and we can say that 1,778 fires at national level have been successfully fought and extinguished".

He emphasized that it is important the role of the people's social comptroller to denounce against pyromaniacs who attempt against the forest areas of the state of Aragua and highlighted that in the state of Aragua seven people have been arrested for being allegedly involved in the fires in the park, while in the state of Mérida, five people have been deprived of their liberty, all of them are in the custody of the Public Ministry, to determine the responsibilities that may be applicable.

"It is important to tell all citizens to denounce, to be very attentive and alert through the 1 x 10 of the Good Government, the 0800-Ambient (0800.262.43.68), the telephone numbers of the governor's and mayor's offices", assured Lorca.

Working session of the Sectoral Vice-Presidency for Public Works and Services

Increased effectiveness in waste collection and optimization of the landfill in Nueva Esparta
